MEMORIAL DAY PLANS OUTLINED

Parade, Music Set for May 29

"WE'LL HAVE to do some tall stepping to beat the Memorial Day program put on last year—but we're out to do just that," Chester Ray Powell, commander of Marshall County Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, declared today as he outlined plans and announced committees for the 1949 program.

COMMITTEES have been listed for planning the parade, arranging white-painted crosses on the court lawn, arranging the program and getting speakers, and publicizing the event. Plans already have been worked out for getting Miss Judy Peebles of Paducah, famous organist, to bring her electric organ to Benton and play patriotic marches and other tunes for the occasion.

Last year's Memorial Day program attracted approximately 2,000 persons and was generally described as one of the best ever sponsored in West Kentucky.

The program in general will be similar to last year's. Relatives and friends may bring flowers and place at the crosses if they desire. The parade will start at 2 o'clock and will proceed to the court yard where the service will be conducted. All veterans organizations have been asked to take part. They may contact Mr. Powell for details.

Dam Attracts 86,000 Visitors in April

A total of more than 440,000 visitors had a look at the 15 major TVA dams in April, the seasonal increase raising the figure 190,000 above last month's 250,000. Kentucky Dam was again the most popular with 85,554 sightseers compared with 38,900 the previous month.

Pickwick Dam held second place with 53,500, while Norris (51,192), and Guntersville (48,460), followed in that order.

George B. Beitzel, Company president

Under construction for approximately a year, the new $2,000,000 Calvert City Works will be devoted to its initial stages to the production of sulfuric acid and hydrofluoric acid. It will operate 24 hours a day.

Plans call for future expansion that is expected to make this plant one of the largest in the Pennsalt chain that now extends from Pennsylvania to Washington and from Michigan to Texas, Beitzel said. Embodying the latest developments in safety and in engineering design and including single and multi-story buildings, the new plant will employ initially approximately 50 people from the Calvert City-Paducah area.

As the demand for fluorine chemicals grows, the plant will be enlarged and personnel increased, according to Beitzel. The plant area occupies approximately 10 acres of land of a 500-acre tract owned by Pennsalt. It is located north of Calvert City, between Paducah and the TVA Kentucky Dam at Gilbertsville, from which electric power is received.

Water necessary for the manufacture of the acids will be pumped from the Tennessee River, 800 yards from the plant. The river also will provide economical transportation facilities. Tracks of the Illinois Central Railroad which serves the plant will carry tank cars. James McWhirter, formerly superintendent at Pennsalt's Natrona, Pa. plant, is in charge of the new operation. A specialist in fluorine chemicals, McWhirter has supervised the construction of the Calvert City Works and makes his home in Paducah.

Pennsalt, which next year reaches the century mark in its history, manufactures over 200 chemicals for farm, home and industry. Its other plants are located at Natrona, Easton and Cornwells Heights, Pa.; Wyandotte, Mich.; Portland, Ore.; Tacoma, Wash.; and Bryan, Texas. It is the only manufacturing company listed on the New York Stock Exchange that has continuously declared quarterly dividends for 86 years.

Old Time Songs in an Old Time Manner--But Fewer Old Faces

THE CROWDS are due again for Big Singing Sunday — replete with new frocks like those sported on the crowded court lawn last year—and like the four young girls who parade on Main Street

Four Stations To Broadcast Part of Event

Souvenirs Ready For Distribution Here on Sunday

YOUNG AND old, they'll be here Sunday — an expected 10,000 folks for the 65th annual Big Singing based upon the Old Southern Harmony songs put into book form by the late "Singing Billy" Walker in 1885.

With renewed interest in the preservation and promotion of Big Singing, this year's occasion is expected to be larger than any since the pre-war years.

A SPECIAL radio broadcast will be heard over the "Big Singing Network," including four stations in this area with more than 70,000 square miles of coverage in seven states embracing a population of some 3,000,000 persons.

The first Big Singing was started in 1884 by J. R. Lenson, who soon became the second editor of the 62-year-old Tribune-Democrat. Singings were held at numerous places in the early years, finally settling in the old courthouse as a traditional setting.

THE REV. T. G. Waller, pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church, has done an outstanding piece of work this year in compiling the most complete history of Big Singing—neatly mimeographed bulletins with printed covers. Five thousand copies are ready for distribution Sunday as souvenir programs.

Down through the years Big Singing has seen many changes around it—but has remained pretty much the same itself. It has seen the day of the oxcart, the railroad, the automobile and the airplane.

In the old days special trains came in from the south bringing Big Singing visitors. They remained all day, returning late in the afternoon. So the drawing power of Big Singing isn't an upstart idea of recent years—but is something seeped in the tradition of the day itself.

TWO BENTON High School students in 1940 counted cars from 25 states parked along Benton's streets. Several years, mind you, before Kentucky Dam started drawing them in. Bumper cards have been used this year to advertise the occasion—and even the New York Times travel section two weeks ago listed "Benton's Big Singing on May 22" as a "must" for folks who happen to be down this way, and who would like to hear the traditional songs of yesterday — in four notes, fa, sol, la and mi.

CHILDREN are expected to take part in this year's singing since the older leaders took it upon themselves to teach them the four-note songs this spring.

And in keeping with the Big Singing tradition—new frocks and new suits will be much in evidence — ushering in the summer clothing season in much the same fashion that Easter forecasts spring.

Hebrew Speaker Scheduled Sunday At Briensburg

Dr. J. H. Cohen, famous Hebrew evangelist and world traveler, will speak on "The Jew and Christianity" at a service Sunday night, May 22, at 7:45 o'clock in the Briensburg Baptist Church.

He has just returned from Europe and was present at the Jewish state of Israel in Palestine. He has spoken in over 2,500 churches in America. The service is open to the public, the Rev. T. L. Campbell, pastor, said.

Sheriff's Race Looms as Hottest: 3 More

Several Others Indicate an Interest; Myers to Run for Tax Commissioner

CANDIDATES' announcements continue to come thick and fast today with the advent of Big Singing and the warm weather that seems to forecast another hot county political campaign.

As hats flew into the political ring the sheriff's race found itself with three new candidates, the county clerk's race picked up another contestant and Sheriff Walker Myers indicated that he will seek the tax commissioner's post.

Pictures and complete texts of the new candidates appear on the back page.

MARK CLAYTON, county court clerk for the past four years, officially entered the race for reelection. Mr. Clayton, a disabled veteran of World War II, a member of the Lions Club and veterans organizations.

WALLACE M. HOLMES, another disabled veteran, a na-

LONNIE FILBECK of Hardin, who served a four-year term and a few months by appointment several years ago, officially seeks the magistrate's seat in his district.

SEVERAL OTHER prospective candidates appeared to be getting themselves lined up for announcements—three more in addition to these, for the sheriff's post, which already is thick with candidates.

OLYMPIANS ARE GUESTS AT HOLLAND HOME HERE

The guests included Ralph Beard, Wallace Jones, Fairce Woods of Kentucky Wesleyan, Manager Kembrough and John Mackintosh, pilot of the Olympian airship.

PLANS OUTLINED FOR STATE FAIR IN SEPTEMBER

All non-profit farm organizations and agencies in Kentucky have joined forces to make the first Farmer's Day at the Kentucky State Fair the "biggest day the Kentucky State Fair has ever seen."

Fair Manager George E. Lambert announced at a meeting of 20 representatives of interested groups at the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation offices that September 13 has been designated as Farmer's Day at the 1949 State Fair. The fair dates are September 11 through September 17.

Planes Zoom at New Airport: First in Any State Park

GOVERNOR Earle C. Clements speaks Sunday at the dedication of Kentucky Dam Airport, pictured here with the dam and Kentucky Lake as a panoramic background.

TODAY AIRPLANES are zooming in and out of the Kentucky Dam Airport at Gilbertsville—the first in operation anywhere in the United States inside a state or national park. The formal "unveiling" of the airport, built by TVA during the construction of Kentucky Dam, occurred at a ceremony Sunday afternoon with Governor Earle C. Clements heading a list of dignitaries who turned out for the dedication.

FORTY-FIVE airplanes from seven states — Iowa, Illinois, Ohio, Tennessee, Indiana, Missouri, and Kentucky—were on hand for the first day.

An estimated crowd of 250 heard the governor praise the lake area, the airport, and the state park program of Conservation Commissioner Henry Ward, who also was in the official party.

THE GOVERNOR commended Mr. Ward particularly for his ability to get funds for Little, TVA reservoir proper development, which he termed "an investment that will pay dividends."

He presented a framed certificate designating the airport as an operating field to Mrs. Lucy Smith, director of parks. Other operator of the airport

A Plug for Speakings

THERE HAS BEEN a lot of talk about sponsoring a lot of talking this summer...which is just another way of saying folks want to hear what the candidates have to say for themselves during the current campaign.

Many of the candidates have said they favor a series of public speakings—and we agree that it would be a good thing in the interest of Democratic government.

IT WILL BE impossible for most candidates to see all the voters. Some of the candidates do not have automobiles and are hampered in their efforts to make a house-to-house campaign.

One said to us the other day: "I know I wouldn't be able to make a good speech—but I'd like to have the opportunity to go before large groups and simply let them know I'm still in the running—and that I'd appreciate their support."

MOST OF THE candidates we have talked to feel the same way. And when the going gets hotter campaign issues that arise—and platforms will unfold themselves.

We think the people have a right to know how their candidates stand—and one of the ways is to have them take the speakers stand face to face with the people of Marshall County and in the presence of their opponents.

It will promote more interest in the election, give the candidates a more equal chance to meet all the people, and probably encourage a greater turnout at the polls. We think the greater majority of the people of the county—and for that matter most of the candidates themselves—agree with us that a series of speakings should be held.

Be Here

May 22

THEY'LL Be here Sunday—the thousands of folks who have learned to love the Old Southern Harmony Singing down through the years.

Not "foreigners," if you please—but folks with deep roots in Marshall County...folks who were born here...who love to return, on special occasions.

YES, THEY ARE due to come "home again," and the Tribune joins most other residents of the town in welcoming them. Big Singing is more than just a singing—it's a homecoming day—and it has been for almost half a century.

Many folks who come to Benton never participate in the singing—but the fact that others carry on the work means something deep to them—for it's a part of Marshall County...a link with the past and those who here preceded us.

BAR THE DOOR! Not by any means. We welcome them sincerely. And even our fellow Americans from other states who have come to Big Singing out of curiosity, hoping to capture for a short while the feeling of brotherhood, of homecoming, of fellowship that goes with Big Singing.

The stores won't be open—and it's no commercial venture. The Tribune and other folks have been publicizing it in the hope that Big Singing may grow in strength and stature...and that this beautiful link with tradition may be preserved.

If a few cold drinks are sold, folks welcome them. For Big Singing has a tradition of being warm, beautiful day—and something cold is most refreshing.

YES, THE BIG DAY'S coming Sunday...and we hope to see you here.

CONGRATULATIONS: To Hardy Little on the recent selection of his farm for the county's first Successful Farmer's Day. To Lucien Cornwell on his appointment as principal at Brewster High School.

EXCELLENT bunch of candidates this year—many good people seeking office in all races. Since we've NOT been a close observer of politics and don't claim to know everything since 1912, we won't say it's the finest slate ever—but will simply say there are so many fine fellows out for office that the county is almost certain to have good officers for the next four years.

A STRANGER MET me on the street this week. Someone evidently had told him who I was. "I hard a fellow cussing you out so strong last week I want to subscribe to your paper," he said—and handed over a dollar.

WE SUGGESTED the other day that the touring Kentuckians of basketball fame be called "Sizzling Six" instead of the "Fabulous Five—plus Joe Holland." Joe contributed as much as any of the others to Kentucky's success for two seasons. A famous southeastern conference coach said Joe is the best rebounder of them all, that he takes everything off the backboard except the paint.

THAT STUMP means a forest harvest has been taken from this land.

Those young trees mean something more important... a new forest harvest is growing!

The danger sign warns us that this new crop can't grow if it is destroyed by fire. Fire and growing forests don't mix. Since human carelessness is the greatest cause of fire in the woods, we can prevent most forest fires before they start. Do your part! Never be careless with fire in the woods.

WHAT IT TAKES TO MAKE A GOOD WEEK END: FOOD AND CAR RIDES

By Martha "Peggy" Mathis

As Friday goes by another week goes to a close. Ready for a week end trip with some friend or relative.

During the week ends I like to take a car ride and see the county. Or maybe go for a Sunday picnic at the great Kentucky Dam. Featured in the lunch basket a dish of fried chicken, and one of mom's swell lemon pies.

Sounds good to me as I had mother to buy a chicken last Friday night and I just ate a few pieces: I am starved for another.

Mrs. Bowden, you should have had supper with us. For Saturday night a few movies and then Monday back to work for me.

Oh yes, I work some, but if I work hard now I will get old too quick. Maybe pick strawberries three days out of a week and about three hours then.

Come back home from berry pickin', start helping mom with a large washing and a neighbor calls for me to go to Paducah.

The washing had to go on or mom finish. I just had to take another trip to Paducah. As I didn't get to go often (twice a week). So you see I work so hard I seldom have time to write the Clark News.

Grandmother called to see and said "The Clark News better turn up in the paper next week." So I had to get busy. Often try to get mother to write for me, but there's always some thing else to do for her.

I was glad to see my girl friend, Silvia Dean Wayne Sunday. She asked if I was the one who wrote the Clark News. It seems as though I have so many nicknames, don't many people know me.

In Joe Green's School News, he said he only had a few more weeks to write his news. I think this is also my last column for about a month anyway. And then maybe I will take to writing it again.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Woods of Briensburg visited Mr. and Mrs. Amos Penny Friday night.

Jean Tubbs was a Saturday visitor in Benton.

Well, crops are out, corn planted for us, and now, we sit back and rest til time to gather our fruit and can some of those beautiful peaches. But of course berry pickin' isn't over just now time. So most of my work has just begun.

And for all you fishermen, grandfather caught the large one down in Clark's River. Who would of thought fish were that large down there?

But granddad always catches as many as two large fish in the river each year.

But the Castleberries are going to try their luck anyway.

A Birthday Celebration

Mr. Amos Penny celebrated his birthday Sunday, he didn't say his age, but anyway he's passed 16. Had a good dinner and a grand time.

My pal, Anna, must have those "Love Sick Blues," she got a permanent Saturday and we couldn't even get her to go to town with Jean and me. Just go to a beautician and then sit at home. She had better go with us, hadn't she Jean?

As deep rooted as the cypress trees, this brings to a close of the Clark News.

WEEK END GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Chester, Mrs. Pat Owens and sons, Mike and David, of Moline, Ill., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Holland.

CHURCH WORK, ENTERTAINMENT: COMMUNITY ROADS SEEN TOO BAD

By Vitus Owens
Hello to all of you folks in Marshall County and all you Graves Countians who read the Tribune. Glad to be back for a short visit.
Everybody hereabouts is busy farming or pickin' berries...and some are a little sore from the picking.
Most of the sick folks are better now.

Road Conditions Bad
I notice there are a lot of folks asking for county offices and some will get them.
We need somebody to fix our roads. I am uneasy about folks who wear false teeth—afraid they will swallow them on these rough ones...no grading...no bridges.

We are expecting something out of our county officials. For we are paying a lot of taxes and getting little or nothing. Our roads tell off on the kind of officials we get.
Dr. Robinson's wife is dead. Very sorry for him and all his staff.

family. May God's richest blessings protect him in all of his sorrow and grief.
The Rev. Charlie Farmer is visiting this week in the Dooms Chapel Community. Preaching at 11 o'clock every third Sunday. Everybody invited to come.
Icy Owens and wife, Magaline, Wanda, stayed all night with Mr. and Mrs. Vitus Owens the other day.
A big show was at Oak Level Saturday night—and it drew a fine crowd.
A large crowd also turned out last Sunday to hear the Happy Goodman Family of Mayfield at the Methodist Church.

To the Benton Tribune: I'd just like to tell all the readers who aren't subscribers you ought to sign for it at once—for you can't beat the Tribune nowhere.
Happy birthday—and good wishes to all of the Tribune family.

EFFIE 'CIRCULATES'--AND LEARNS WHAT THE FOLKS LIKE TO READ

By Effie Bowden

This "circulating" manager will try to manage for a time to report the Grove news once again. I managed to circulate through the Grove Monday, see the flowers, the gardens, the preparations made for crops. It's all flowers and eats in Cherry Grove.

Mrs. Greenville McGregor suffered a broken arm one day last week.
Our Grove guests over the week end were Terrell Houser and family of Chicago, and the Neal Blaggs from Millstadt, Ill.

Grove folk were saddened by recent deaths of Mrs. Clemmie Darnall Phillips, Mrs. Hattie Robertson of Symons, and young Mr. English. The funerals were over the week end. To all, we extend sympathy.

Congratulations go very strong from this mother to the baby of our family. Yes, he is married. The bride was before the event Miss Dorothy O'Daniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Daniel of Route 1.

This new daughter-in-law, son Bill says, "is your Mother's Day gift from me to you." "Thanks," sez I. "I accept her as such wholeheartedly."

Circulating through the Tribune office on Thursday, the paper was rolling off the press, being folded and stamped in the back end, Editor Bill was pecking out columns for the following edition...which looked pretty efficient to me.

This scribe made a few solemn promises last week to some friends around Kirksey. The promise: "I'll send in a few words to be published each week to keep 'em happy—if it takes that."

That's what you find out when you "circulate" around. You manage to find out what the Tribune readers want—and why they regard it as their favorite paper, and perhaps why some have to refer to "my two readers."

Here's a big "thank you" for all the nice, kind words about

Cherry items and the other Tribune columns...and the flowers I've brought away from your homes. Yes, and the dinners I've shared with you—and all who have been writing to the office. Thanks a million—write again. If I don't send a special "thank you" I'll manage for space in the paper.

Nice last week to see the old neighbors and I would add among my first neighbors in Benton—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooper have been away from Benton for many years and are back home for a vacation.

Oak Level:

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dooms and son, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Bolen and family spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dooms in Evansville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Walters spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Solon Cope.

Several around Oak Level attended the singing at Shady Grove Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ilen Bolen spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roach.

Mr. and Mrs. Connie Norwood spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Burkhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Bolen visited Mr. and Mrs. Ilen Bolen Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Flood spent Sunday with their son in Hopkinsville.

MALE BEAUTY PAGEANT SET AT CALVERT

Hunks o' male beauty will be on parade Thursday, May 26, at the Calvert Theatre in a masquerade contest sponsored by the Calvert Lions Club.

Among the contestants, according to Shelby McCallum, three manager, (who took the liberty of "effeminating" some of the names), are the following:
Jamie M. Solomon, Edwina O'Dell, Edison Story, Christina Hall, Josephine Cope, W. T. Stice, Billie Harrell, R. C. Smith, Alberta Harrell, Kenneth Elam, Bonnie Stice.

Willie Draffen, C. V. Hatcher, Thomas Boulard, Jr., Hardy Cann, Pauline Noles, Kenneth Capps, Syrol Ford, Marvin York, Frankie Huber.
Kenneth Hastings, Marvin Riley, Robbie Hoover, Woodrow Morefield, Buford McLenore, J. R. Pilcher, and Bert Defew.

O'Daniel-Blagg Wedding

A marriage of recent interest here occurred May 8 in Corinth, Miss., when Dorothy Jean O'Daniel and Billy Blagg exchanged vows.

Mrs. Blagg, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. O'Daniel, was graduated from Benton High School in 1948. Mr. Blagg, son of Mrs. Effie Bowden, attended Benton High School and spent two years in the Navy during World War II.

They were accompanied to Corinth by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Solomon, who attended the wedding. The couple reside temporarily with the bride's parents.

DETROIT VISITOR

Mrs. Grace Adair of Detroit is visiting relatives and friends in Marshall County and Benton for a few days.

We can use several nice 20 to 25 lb. smoked hams within the next ten days. Bring them to Heath Hardware & Furniture Company.

Program Released for Commencement Week

THERE'S BUZZING on the hilltop these days — which is another way of saying that Benton commencement time is almost here again and the tension that goes with the end of a school year can be felt the instant one enters the front door.

A busy graduation week beginning May 20 with the senior play concluding May 27 with the commencement program has been worked out by Superintendent Tullus Chambers and his aides.

THE PLAY, "Grandpa's Twin Sister," a three-act comedy will feature a cast of ten seniors under the direction of Prof. Winford Clairborne.

The following day the seniors will make their annual sojourn to Mammoth Cave in a chartered bus, accompanied by Joe P. Duke, class sponsor, and several other teachers.

THE BACCALAUREATE program will be Sunday, May 22, with Alonzi Williams of the Murrell Boulevard Church of Christ, Paducah, as the speaker. An outing at Kentucky Lake at Prof. Chambers' cabin, with the superintendent and his wife as hosts will highlight the activities of May 23, while the Junior-Senior Banquet gets the spotlight the next day. The music department of Miss Barbara Polk will present an entertainment program.

THURSDAY, MAY 26, is due to be a big day, too. A big day for some—and disappointments, perhaps, for a few. That's the day the final report cards will be passed out, along with copies of the Arrow, the school annual.

DR. ELLA Wehling, professor and former dean of women at Murray State College, will deliver the commencement address May 27. All night programs are scheduled for 8 o'clock.

THE SENIOR ROSTER

Tom Mix Adkins, Eugene Byers, John William Dyke, Robert Edwards, James Clay Ely, Bobby Farmer, Richard Henry Gatlin, John C. Greenfield, Byron Heath, Oran Johnston, C. W. Jones, Charles Larmore, Charles D. Morefield, Thomas Nelson, Donald Phillips, Howard Sanders, Gerald Smith,

James Gilbert Smith, Joe E. Story, Gene Turner, Stan Williams.

Around Ole' Fair Dealing:HAVEN HENSON BIRTHDAY FETE

Friends and kinfolks gave Uncle Haven Henson a surprise birthday dinner Sunday.

Among those present were his sister, Aunt Mary Ramsey, and her sons, Ira Ramsey, Louis Ramsey and Betty Ham. Also present were Messrs. and Mesdames Lemuel Henson, Noah Henson, John Mason Pitts and children, Edgar Henson, Louie Henson, Grover Harrison, Dewey Cates, Thomas Nelson, Floyd Nelson and Ray Nelson.

Mrs. Lizzy Henson, Donna Boaz and children, Anna Lou Harrison and son, Nora Inman and daughter, Edd Bolin, Ruth and Helen Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Haven Henson, Ona Dell Henson and Aunt Dill Jones.

Edwin Gordon of California has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gordon. Laurence Wilkins of Detroit spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virge Wilkins.

Eula and Earlene Henson were Monday evening callers of Mrs. Bert Nelson.

Mrs. Ray Dornall of Paducah spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Daril Wilkins of Paducah were Friday guests of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Virge Wilkins.

Chester Travis and sons, William Watson and Wayne, of Paducah, visited his sister, Mrs. Solon Holt, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallie, David Johnnie and Thomas Nelson were Sunday afternoon callers of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nelson.
